

Tartar Baseballers Encounter Falcons

Clutch-playing Aviation beclings to the Torrance nine at 3 p.m. today in a Pioneer League battle with nothing more at stake than prestige.

Despite its poor 3-6 circuit mark, the Falcons are not pushovers as second-place Lennox found out Tuesday. The Lancers failed to keep pace with loop-leading Culver City as Aviation won a 10-inning marathon engagement.

Torrance boosted its league record to an even-seven 4-4 with a 5-3 decision over cellar-dwelling Beverly Hills on Tuesday.

Behind a clever chucking performance by Don Coil, the Tartars zipped into an early lead and managed to fight off the game Normans the rest of the way.

Coil, throwing hard and going the entire route, set 12 batters down on strikes, giving up but four hits and walking five.
 The Tartar ace had chalked up 11 strikeouts with two out in the fifth, but could manage only one K the rest of the distance.

BILL TRUGMAN went the distance for the losers, giving up seven hits, walking five and striking out four.

Coil did not pick on any particular Norman batter, whifing each man at least once.

 He now has 26 strikeouts in 20 innings on the hill and boasts a 2-0 circuit slate.

John Cambon got Torrance rolling in the first frame, walking, stealing second and coming home on Terry Greason's double.

STEVE WATERS climbed on board via an error and Irv Pa-lica brought Greason around with a single.

Torrance kept moving in the second frame, plating up another pair of runs. Jerry Mc-Lain walked and went to second on a balk and brought in a run on Cambon's single.

GREASON moved Cambon up a base with a single and Waters punched out another one-bagger to bring Cambon across the plate.

Cambon was responsible for the only other Tartar tally of the contest, blasting a 370-foot home run over the left field fence in the fourth inning.

PESKY Beverly Hills never gave up and tacked on a run in the first frame on a double,
 a ground-out and a squeeze play.

The Normans added another pair of runs in the third inning on a pair of free passes and two singles.

CAMBON remains the top Tartar with a bat, swinging the lumber at a .471 clip in 17 official trips to the plate. The Tartar second-sacker swings at few bad pitches and has drawn 13 walks. He also operates flawlessly around his second base slot, handling 19 putouts and 22 assists without an error, the only Torrance man without a miscue to his credit.

 Waters also wields a heavy bat, working on a seven game hitting streak and a .380 average.

JETT PROPULSION . . . Dennis Jett, holder of the El Camino 220-yard low hurdle record, gallops over hurdle in preparation for tomorrow's Metropolitan Conference clash against Santa Monica on the Warrior oval.

Warrior Cindermen Host Santa Monica

Warrior tracksters will meet Santa Monica thinclads in an expected nip 'n' tuck battle to begin at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow on their home oval.

Without the benefit of one of the top distance runners in the conference, El Camino College spikesters were handicapped in the Southern California Junior College Relays at Cerritos College Thursday. Mike Thornton suffered a spiked leg during practice and consequently was forced to scratch from competition.

Warrior Floyd Schmidt leaped 23'-1/4" to take a second place in the broad jump for El Camino, while teammate Steve Robertson placed in a five-way tie for fifth in the high jump competition, clearing the bar at 5'10".

In four-way combined efforts for one finishing time, ECC spikesters garnered a third spot in the 480-yard shuttle hurdles in 59.4 seconds, placed third in the sprint medley relay (440-220-220-880) with a 3:32.4 clocking, took a third in the distance medley with a combined time of 10:42.9 and capped a third in the two-mile relay in 8:13.8.

In the 880-yard relay, Warriors Schmidt, Dennis Johnson, Glen Oclassen and Dennis Jett set the new El Camino school record at 1:30.0, while taking a fourth place in the event.

SUBMARINE VACATIONS

Vacationers may cross the ocean by submarine in the near future, says one authority. Underwater cruising is calm and stable, and provides a nice view of "inner space," he adds.

El Camino Nine Engages Harbor In Metro 'Must'

With high hopes of upsetting high-riding Los Angeles Harbor College, El Camino steps off at the Seahawks' field tomorrow for the second of a three-game baseball junket.

Spilling an otherwise perfect Easter weekend for El Camino, the Long Beach Vikings took advantage of four Warrior miscues and ganged up on starter John Torok for five runs, more than enough for the 5-1 victory, Saturday.

With the victory, the Vikes remained champs of the annual Metropolitan Conference Easter Tournament with El Camino holding on to the second rung of the ladder.

North Nine Meets Second-Place HHS

Battling desperately to remain in the competition for a CIF baseball berth, North High goes up against Hawthorne this afternoon at 3 on the Saxon diamond.

Admittedly the Saxon chances are dim after Hawthorne administered a 5-2 licking on Tuesday, but North still has a mathematical chance to edge Redondo and the Cougars out of the second place slot.

Morningside maintains a firm grip on the lead with an 8-2 record, while Hawthorne clings close behind with a 9-4 mark. Redondo dropped a notch Tuesday, tumbling to 7-4 by virtue of a loss to South.

NORTH HOLDS down fourth place with a 6-5 record.

Gary Mykkanen blasted home four RBIs against North in the opening game of the series to pace the Cougar win. Mykkanen punched a two-run homer in the opening frame, drove a run across in the third with a sacrifice fly, and put still another marker on the scoreboard in the fifth inning with a single.

TY GOODWIN took the pitching nod for Hawthorne, boosting his league record to 4-0. Goodwin whiffed nine. Jay Baker absorbed the heat for North, allowing four runs, striking out two men and walking one.

Baker's replacement, Jon Beck, struck out six men and gave up only a single tally after coming on in the fourth inning.

In the fourth frame, when North scored both of its runs, Skip Mooney chalked up an RBI with a double and Bob Trevathan drove in a tally.

A Pattern for the Future

A boy...and baseball...the most American of all sports. A boy...learning sportsmanship and teamwork in the give-and-take of friendly competition. A better boy today...a better citizen tomorrow...through healthy, wholesome recreation.

This year, organized baseball for kids age eight on up will help establish a pattern for the future of 4,200 Torrance youngsters. A part of the sports program coordinated by the Torrance Youth Sports Council, kid baseball promotes better citizenship. Community participation in youth sports has done much toward keeping the rate of juvenile delinquency low in Torrance. Organized in 1958, the Council represents 21 Torrance leagues, including Little League, Babe Ruth, Pony, Colt, Connie Mack and American Legion. The continuing success of the Council and the member leagues is possible only through the support and assistance of the whole community. Civic-minded individuals sponsor teams, others serve as coaches and managers or simply lend vocal support as rooters for their favorite teams.

A boy...a baseball and bat...the Torrance Youth Sports Council—more reasons why we at the Mobil refinery say... Torrance is a good place to live and work.
